Fontainebleau, September 22.

ON the 10th Inſtant the Deputies of the Aſſembly General of the Clergy of France were introduced to the King with the uſual Ceremonies, and by the Mouth of the Biſhop of Luçon made their Compliments to his Majeſty on his Marriage. The ſame Day they had Audience of the Queen, and the Biſhop of Angers ſpeaking for the reſt, made their Compliments to her Majeſty. That Day the Keeper of the Seals of France, at the Head of the Council, complimented their Majeſties. And the following Days the like Duty was paid by the Deputies of the Parliament, the Deputies of the Chamber of Accompts, of the Court of Aids, of the Great Council, and of the Court of the Mint: The Preſident of each Company making their Speeches ſeverally. The Deputies of the Univerſity, and of the French Academy, having likewiſe been introduced with the uſual Ceremonies to their Majeſties, made their Compliments in Speeches pronounced by the Heads of each of thoſe Societies. On the 16th our City Magiſtrates, the Duke de Geſvres Governour of Paris being at their Head, were introduced to the King and Queen ſeverally, and the Preſident Lambert Prevoſt des Marchands, made their Compliments. The Duke de Gramont, Peer and Marſhal of France, whoſe chief Employments were thoſe of Governour and Lieutenant-General for the King in Navarre and Bearn, and Collonel of the French Guards, died at Paris the 16th Inſtant. He is ſucceeded as Collonel of the French Guards by his Son the Marqueſs de Souvigny.

Dublin, Sept. 7. This Day the Parliament of this Kingdom met, according to their laſt Prorogation. In the Houſe of Peers the Lord Chancellour took the Oaths and his Place as Speaker; and ſeveral Lords, Spiritual and Temporal, who were introduced and ſat the firſt Time in Parliament, took the Oaths. The Commons ordered their Speaker to iſſue his Warrants to the Clerk of the Crown, to make out Writs for electing ſeveral Knights of Shires and Burgeſſes for Boroughs, in the Room of ſome Members called up to the Houſe of Peers, and of others deceaſed. And both Houſes adjourned to this Day Fortnight the 21ſt Inſtant.

Royal Exchange Aſſurance-Office, Sept. 15. 1725.

The Court of Directors of the Royal Exchange Aſſurance Company do hereby give Notice, That a General Court of the ſaid Company will be held at their Office on the Royal Exchange, London, on Wedneſday the 22d of this Inſtant September, at Eleven in the Forenoon, in order to declare a Dividend.

Whitehall, Feb. 3, 1724.

Whereas His Majeſty's Exchequer was broke open between Monday Noon and this Morning, and a conſiderable Sum of Money was taken out of the Office of the Right Honourable the Lord William Powlet: This is to give Notice, That if any Perſon concerned in the ſaid Felony, or being any ways privy thereto, by adviſing or contriving the ſame, will ſurrender himſelf and make a free Diſcovery of his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as they or any one of them ſhall be apprehended and convicted for the ſame, ſuch Perſon, whether concerned in the ſaid Felony, or in adviſing, contriving or being privy thereto, ſhall have His Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon; and as a further Encouragement ſhall have a Reward of One Thouſand Pounds, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury. And if any other Perſon or Perſons ſhall diſcover, apprehend, and convict any Perſon or Perſons concerned in the ſaid Felony, he or they ſhall receive the like Reward of One Thouſand Pounds, to be paid in like Manner.

TOWNSHEND.
